

Run Leader Profile

Name: Tony Hill

Nickname: Tone

Hometown: Born Walsall, Brought up Heswall

Professions: Chartered Electrical Engineer, Maths and PE teacher

CRR Role: Committee Member, Social Committee Member, Running Coach, Run Leader

Started running: 2003 as part of Triathlon

First Running Event: Chester Half marathon

Favourite Event and why: Great North Run. I first ran the Great North run to raise money for MS and after 10 consecutive years it still makes me cry with emotion and makes me feel so glad to be alive and active.

Favourite running moment: The end of any Half marathon when I am feeling good (which is most of them).

Favourite CRR moment: Majorca last year. What goes on in Majorca stays in Majorca!

Why do you run?: 1; General fitness 2 Challenge myself 3. Love the company

2018 Goals: Not get any slower and complete at least 5 Half marathons.

Favourite Food: Oysters

Favourite Place: Boston Massachusetts

First thing you would buy with Lottery winnings: Bottle of Vintage Barolo to celebrate.

Three interesting facts:

1. I cycled across 3,415 miles Coast to Coast across the US in 2012.
2. I shook hands and drank tea with Muhammar Gadafi and Idi Amin.
3. I really would have liked to have been a midwife, but cannot watch Casualty!
